

Those who voted in the affirmative were, Messrs. Baker, Bedford, Benton, Borland, Baile, Barnhardt, Clingman, Collins, Davenport, Eaton, Erwin, Foreman, Gary, Gee, Gorrell, Graham, Guthrie, Harris, Harper, Hassell, J. Horton, W. Horton, Hoskins, Hunt, Jacobs, Kelly, King, W. B. Lane, Lilly, Loudermilk, Manly, Muse, McPherson, J. H. Perkins, Rayner, Rogers, Rush, Geo. Smith, Swindell, Thomas, Waddell, Watts.

Those who voted in the negative were, Messrs. Braswell, Bryan, Byrum, Cansler, Cotten, Davis, Dunn, Fitzrandolph, Frink, J. W. Guinn, L. A. Gwyn, N. Harrison, Hawkins, Henry, Hester, Hill, Howerton, Hutchison, Hybart, Irion, Jeffreys, Jervis, Jones, Judkins, Kenan, I. W. Lane, Lyon, D. McNeill, Neal, Pickett, Powell, J. L. Smith, Stallings, Stockard, Taylor, Tomlinson, Tuton, Watson, Whitley, Williamson.

The question now recurring on the indefinite postponement of the said resolutions; Mr. Clingman renewed the question whether it was now in order to move the indefinite postponement; the speaker decided that the motion was in order, and from this decision Mr. Clingman took an appeal to the House; and the question "is the decision of the chair, the decision of the House?" was determined in the affirmative—Yea 55, Nays 32. The yeas and nays called by Mr. Guthrie,

Those who voted in the affirmative were, Messrs. Bedford, Braswell, Brown, Bryan, Barnhardt, Cansler, Collins, Cotten, Davis, Dunn, Fitzrandolph, Frink, J. W. Guinn, L. A. Gwyn, N. Harrison, Harper, Hawkins, Henry, Hester, Hill, Howerton, Hunt, Hutchison, Hybart, Irion, Jacocks, Jeffreys, Jervis, Jones, Judkins, Kenan, I. W. Lane, Lyon, Muse, J. A. D. McNeill, D. McNeill, McPherson, Neal, Pickett, Powell, Siler, Sloan, J. L. Smith, Stallings, Stockard, Swindell, Taylor, Thomas, Tomlinson, Tuton, Watson, Whitley, Williamson, Witcher.

Those who voted in the negative were, Messrs. Baker, Benton, Borland, Baile, Clingman, Davenport, Eaton, Erwin, Foreman, Gary, Gee, Gorrell, Graham, Guthrie, Harris, Hassell, J. Horton, W. Horton, Hoskins, Kelly, King, W. B. Lane, Lilly, Loudermilk, Manly, J. H. Perkins, Rayner, Rogers, Rush, George Smith, Waddell, Watts.

The question again recurring on the indefinite postponement of the resolutions; the House, on motion, adjourned until to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1835.

The House proceeded to the unfinished business in which they were engaged at the last adjournment; the question before the House, being the motion to postpone indefinitely the resolutions relating to the public domain; which motion prevailed, and the said resolutions were postponed indefinitely—Yea 54, Nays 43.

Those who voted in the affirmative were, Messrs. Tho. Bell, Braswell, Brown, Bryan, Byrum, Cansler, Carson, Cotten, Davis, Dean, Fitzrandolph, Frink, J. W. Guinn, L. A. Gwyn, N. Harrison, Hawkins, Henry, Hester, Hill, Howerton, Hutchison, Hybart, Irion, Jeffreys, Jervis, Jones, Judkins, Kenan, I. W. Lane, Lee, Lyon, J. A. D. McNeill, D. McNeill, Neale, Pickett, Powell, Ridick, Roebuck, Siler, Slade, Sloan, J. L. Smith, Stallings, Stockard, Swindell, Taylor, Tomlinson, Tuton, J. R. Walker, J. H. Walker, Watson, Whitley, Williamson, Witcher.

Those who voted in the negative were, Messrs. Bedford, Benton, Borland, Brummell, Baile, Byrd, Barnhardt, Clement, Clingman, Collins, Davenport, Eaton, Erwin, Foreman, Gary, Gorrell, Graham, Guthrie, Harris, Harper, Hassell, J. Horton, W. Horton, Hoskins, Hunt, Jacocks, Kelly, King, W. B. Lane, Lilly, Loudermilk, Manly, Matthews, Muse, McPherson, P. Dexter, Rayner, Rogers, Rush, Geo. Smith, Thomas, Waddell, Watts.

Mr. Gary introduced a bill to amend an act passed in the year 1833, es-